He vending and disposal of Books this Auctionary way, though heretofore a stranger, yet of late hath so frequently obtained in the City of London, that the known Method hereof may supersede any large or tedious Preface; only in brief the Candid Reader is desired to take notice, that the Books mentioned in the Ensuing Catalogue, are no Collection made by any private hand for Gain, (which hath been imputed to some Auctions, as a Reflection.) But were really belonging to their Proprietors Deceased, mentioned in the Title page, and by the Directions of their respective Executors exposed to Sale.

The manner and Conditions of the Auction

First, That having this Catalogue of the Books

To the READER.

Books, and their Editions under their several Heads and Numbers, it will be more easie for any Person of Quality, Gentlemen or others, to Depute any one to Buy such Book or Books for them as they shall desire, if their Occasions will not permit them to be present at the Auction themselves.

Secondly, This Auction will begin on Monday the second day of December next ensuing; At the Sign of the Harrow over-against the Colledge of Physitians in Warwick-Lane, at Nine a Clock in the Morning, and at Two in the Afternoon, and so Continue day by day untill all the Books are Sold; Wherefore it is desired, that the Gentlemen or those Deputed by them, may be there precisely at the Hours appointed, least they should miss the opportunity of Buying those Books which either themselves, or their friends desire.

Thirdly, That he who bids most, is the Buyer; But if any manifest Difference shall arise, that then the same Book or Books shall be forthwith exposed again to Sale, and the highest bidder to have the same.

Fourthly, That the Buyers are desired to pay down at the Sale one shilling in part of payment for all such books as they shall buy at this

Auction

To the READER.

Action; And the residue of the Money is to be paid within one Moneth after the Sale, at the place aforesaid, where the Book or Books so bought upon payment thereof, shall be delivered.

Fifthly, That all the Books, according the Catalogue, are (forasmuch as is known) Perfect; But if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choyce of Taking or Leaving such Imperfect Book or Books.

Lastly, All Persons who have a desire to see any, or all of these Books, and to satisfy themselves in the Condition, and Editions of them, may please to repair to the place aforesaid, from the 18th. day of this present November, untill the first Sale-day before mentioned, where constant attendance shall be given for their Satisfaction, from the Hours of Eight in the Morning to Twelve at Noon, and from One to Five in the Afternoon.
